

Help Build the Find Your Voice Studio

Building the Future...

Support family-friendly radio and help give kids a voice. 101.7 KJNi-LP family hits radio station in Lake Elsinore, is building a new studio. Just like you, we're concerned about kids and their future. We offer fun and age-appropriate entertainment at FM 101.7 and online at JENNiRADIO.com. We also participate in local events, to get kids moving and encourage families to listen together. Soon, through our Find Your Voice program, kids will have an opportunity to improve communication skills and self esteem with a one-of-a-kind broadcasting training program, just for them. These workshops will be open to kids throughout the Southern California area. Through the generous donations of concerned companies and citizens like you, we will also be able to offer scholarships to disadvantaged kids from local community organizations.

But first, we need to build the studio. Read on to see how you can help...

ABOUT 101.7 KJNi-LP This station provides kids with fun and parents with peace of mind. It plays the JENNiRADIO format, featuring age-appropriate music and other entertainment content not found anywhere else. We bring families together with not only entertainment, but caring for the community. Owned by the non-profit Jennifer Smart Foundation, the station seeks to bring people together to help out and give back, while supporting various organizations in their missions.

ABOUT JENNIFER SMART Jennifer began her career in radio at just six years old. Then, she was the youngest nationally-syndicated radio talk show host. At 14, she became the youngest radio station owner in the US. She's also toured 48 states, appeared in two movies, established her own charitable foundation, created and hosted a music video countdown show, and interviewed more celebrities than anyone else her age. Now 18 and in her second year at UCLA, Jen has simple goals in life - to be a good role model, treat everyone with the same kindness, and encourage others to have the same appreciation she does for helping out and giving back.

Listener

$100 Donation

No radio station can survive without them. We're so thankful for our JENNiRADIO listeners, that we named our first level after them! Donate as a family or a group of friends. Your donations will add up to something great, because they come from our fans.

Reward:

You will be mentioned on the Jennifer Smart Foundation and JENNiRADIO web sites, and on the donor wall in the studio. You'll also get a thank you letter from Jennifer and a tax receipt.

Street Team

$250 Donation

The Street Team is a group that helps put on events in the local community. They're like a pep squad for radio. Your donation makes the larger things begin to come into view, like chairs and headphones. A few of these put together add up to bigger things, like desks and computers.

Reward:

Same as Listener, plus your name goes on a larger item in the studio, that was purchased with your donation. Your name will appear larger than Listener names on the web sites and studio donor wall.

Buy a Mic

$650 Donation

Limited Number Available

Microphones are at the heart of a radio station. Without them, there is silence, which is no good! Your donation helps us buy this essential equipment for the studio.

Reward:

Your name/company name/logo will appear on the mic flag or arm, and will appear larger on all donor lists. You also receive a thank you letter, signed head shot from Jen, a tax receipt and a "Find Your Voice" package for one kid.

Disc Jockey

$1000 Donation

While the DJ doesn't necessarily run the station, her or she does rule the airwaves. This donation level funds all the technical stuff, like software, consoles, hybrids and pre-amps, plus a couple of dreams.

Reward:

Same as Street Team, plus your name/logo even larger on studio donor wall, name/logo full-screen on video display in studio, signed head shot and "Find Your Voice" packages for two kids.

Full Studio Sponsor

Call for Donation Amount

You won't get to own the station, but you will get to brand it.

Reward:

The studio will be named after you or your company, and always referred to as, for example, "The HP Studio." You will receive one mention per hour, like "From the HP Studio, this is JENNiRADIO." Your mentions will continue at the top of every hour for an entire year. Additional benefits are customizable.
